PRESENTATIONS SUMMARY

Networks

Monika Sinha, Virtual Oncological Networks - Which IT Support is needed for a Regional Evidence Based Health Care Management? - Empirical Results of a Qualitative Expert Study

Belinda Wijckmans, Interorganizational network governance within the Belgian mental health reform programme

Daan Westra, Evidence of specialist sharing: Implications for managing hospitals in a competitive market

Long Term Care

Liselore Snaphaan, Assistive health innovations for people living with dementia: A social innovation approach

Lisette Schipper, How older clients experience the operational access to long-term institutional care

Suzanne van den Bosch, Improving quality, cost-effectiveness and future sustainability of the long-term care sector in The Netherlands - A nationwide program

Marjolein Herps, Assessing the effectiveness of interventions in long term care

Evidence Based Practice

Elaine McNichol, Knowledge Transfer Partnerships: An approach to generating and integrating evidence in a timely manner into healthcare practice

Valentina Iacopino, Organizational models of Hospital Based HTA: Empirical Evidence from AdHopHTA European Project

Helene Andrea, Education in research and in management among postgraduate training programs for mental health professionals; added value for the use of evidence-based practice?

Patient Centric Care

Julia Plein, Patient Empowerment and its suitability for patient management

Jeroen Trybou, Caring for the elderly with a psychiatric condition in the Eurometropolis: a prospective study

EU health policy session: the European semester

Dr. Bernard Merkel, BCM Policy Advisors and LSHTM, Belgium

Ms. Rita Baeten, European Social Observatory, Belgium

Dr. Sandra Buttigieg, University of Malta, Malta

Management - making good decisions

Ellen Kuhlmann, Medicine and management: exploring the connections, closing the gaps

Elaine McNichol, A framework to support the training and development of managers in relation to management decision making in healthcare
Planning and Purchasing Care II
Abraham George, Population commissioning for the future
Hanna Rautiainen, Can national morbidity index predict need for intensive care?

Staff & Health Care Regulation II
Manja Bomhoff, Responsive Regulation and the Enforcement Pyramid: Between Theory and Evidence
Susanna Palomäki, Information, care and compensation

Health Managers' (Thesis) Session
Astrid Wüthrich, Addiction Policies - Developing an overall political strategy on alcohol, tobacco, illicit drugs and other addictions in Switzerland
Stéphane Johner, Benchmarking of the main operating room (or) of the university hospital of Lausanne (CHUV)

Evidence based management: basic principles and practical examples
Mr. Eric Barends, Center for Evidence-Based Management, the Netherlands
Prof. Rob Briner, School of Management, University of Bath, United Kingdom

Substituting a health for a sickness orientation within (military) healthcare systems
Rosanne Meulenbeld, Substituting a health for an illness orientation within military healthcare: an theoretical underpinning
Pieter Helmhout, Co-creation of sustainable employability within the Dutch Armed Forces: substituting a health for an illness orientation within military health care

Towards an accelerated roadmap for actions to strengthen evidence-informed policy-making in the European region
Ms. Tanja Kuchenmüller, WHO/Europe, Denmark
Dr. Johan Hansen, NIVEL, the Netherlands
Dr. Mircha Poldrugovac, NIPH, Slovenia